

Visit to Salisbury including Arundells and Mompesson House

Tuesday 21st March

During our visit to Salisbury it will be possible to visit both Arundells (the former home of Edward Heath) as well as the National Trust property Mompesson House - both of which are situated in the Cathedral Close

Arundells <https://arundells.org/house/> a medieval canonry, has been extensively modified over the centuries, most recently in 1964 and then prior to it becoming the home of Edward Heath. It contains Sir Edward's art collection and gifts and other memorabilia reflecting his years of public service and passions for sailing and music.

Mompesson House <https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/mompesson-house> a 18th-century Queen Anne town house and tranquil walled garden in the heart of Salisbury's historic Cathedral Close.

For the purposes of the visit we will be divided into two groups one of which will visit Arundells and the other Mompesson House in the morning and then swap over to complete the visit in the afternoon.

Departure. The coach will leave BOA Station Car Park at 9.15am and the return trip will start at 4.30pm. We should be back in Bradford by 6.00pm

Cost to include coach, and entry to Arundells £33

There is an additional charge of £8.08 for entry to Mompesson House for those who are not members of the National Trust.

If you are a National Trust member please remember to bring your membership card with you or you will be charged the group entrance fee.
